

Shala Praveshotsav and Kanya Kelavani

In particular the Kanya Kelavani is the move in the right direction for 'Education for All.' A flagship program of the State Government entered the ninth year encouraging formal education with special focus on the girls, also authorities claim to achieve 0% dropout rates in Gujarat in coming years.

Hon'ble Chief Minister enrolled children in std. 1st

Shala Praveshotsav and Kanya Kelavani are unique initiatives taken by the State Government. Since 2002, both programmes are being organized state wide every year in the month of June to promote enrollment of eligible children in Std. 1st. In these programmes Hon'ble Chief Minister, Ministers, Officials, State and District Level Officers travel to remote villages to encourage parents to enroll their children in school.
