With the growing cases and panic due to Coronavirus Outbreak, the education sector of India is in a state of lockdown. A number of major boards have postponed the exams and even canceled exams for few classes. Central Board of Secondary Education, CBSE is also doing its best, by providing guidelines and helpline numbers for students and parents regarding the Coronavirus. Now, CBSE has come up with thought-provoking questions on its Diksha APP. A few hours ago, CBSE took its twitter page and tweeted about the news. Students can visit the Diksha app so as to access these questions. The questions are based on Maths, Science, English and Hindi.
