

Case Study - Growth of a girl studied at KGBV

Name of the student- Ashaben Shivabhai Chaudhary

School - Kasturba Gandhi Balika Vidhyalay, At Gotarka ,
Taluka - Radhanpur, District- Patan

Achievement: built career as a Police Constable

Asha was from a migrant family, due to the frequent migration of her family she dropped out of her school from 4th grade. Asha was a very bright girl and she wanted to study further, she explained her wish to KGBV staff During the survey. After the survey, she was enrolled in class V at KGBV Gotarka, Patan. During her stay at KGBV Asha increased her interest in Maths and Science subjects. As she had much interest in sports she also participated in many sports activities during her stay at KGBV. She also liked to participate in co-curricular activities and taken part in essay competitions. During her stay at KGBV she developed her skills and prepared herself for further studies. After completing class VIII from KGBV Gotaraka, she continued her study and get admission in class IX at Sarswati Kanya Vidyalay Radhanpur, Patan. As She was a good student she completed her graduation in the year 2020.

Currently, Asha is working as a Police constable in Ahmedabad. Stories like this is an example of how a child can achieve their dreams when they get proper support. KGBV supports many girls to achieve their dreams.